

Calumet Country Club

A Historic Private Club Since 1901

Golf Outing Information

The Donald Ross designed gem is the perfect place for your corporate, school, organization or charity outing

Established in 1901, Calumet Country Club has a deep and long tradition in the history of Chicagoland golf. The private 18-hole championship golf course is one of a handful in the area designed by one of the most renowned architects of the 20th century, Donald Ross. Throughout the years many of Ross' designs have hosted major golf championships. A few of Ross' most famous courses include Pinehurst #2, Seminole, Oak Hill, Inverness and Oakland Hills. Calumet hosted the 1945 Chicago Victory Open, which was won by Byron Nelson.

Calumet has a par of 71 and measures 6,619 yards from the championship tees. Featuring four sets of tees Calumet is a fun and enjoyable golf course for golfers of all skill levels.

With our 30,000 square foot clubhouse and other club amenities Calumet Country Club is the ideal place to host your golf outing.

Calumet Country Club is located at the corner of 175th Street and Western Avenue, in Homewood, Illinois. We are conveniently situated minutes from interstates 94, 294, 80, 394, 57 and only 30 minutes from downtown Chicago.
